Australian and New Zealand Studies Association of North America

CALL FOR PROPOSALS

27th Annual Conference

5-7 February, 2020

The University of Guadalajara at Puerto Vallarta

The Australian and New Zealand Studies Association of North America invites scholars, graduate students*, professionals, writers, and artists to submit papers and roundtable discussions to its 27th annual conference, which, for the second time in ANZSANA's history, will take place in Mexico, this time at one of the country's top beach resorts, Puerto Vallarta.

ANZSANA welcomes proposals on any aspect of Australian or New Zealand as well as studies that analyze Australia or New Zealand from a comparative perspective. Since its founding in 1989, ANZSANA has promoted interdisciplinary research, and it continues to encourage proposals that bridge traditional divides between disciplines as well as those that employ diverse approaches. Areas of inquiry include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Political Science and International Relations
- History
- Geography, Sociology and Anthropology
- Law
- Gender Studies
- Indigenous Studies
- Literature
- Visual and Performing Arts
- Communication and Culture
- Business and Economics
- Pedagogy
- Ecology and Environmental Sciences

*We offer a limited number of small travel grants to facilitate graduate student participation as well as remission of their registration fees. Graduate students must indicate their status as such in their proposals to be considered for a grant.

Deadline for submission of proposals is 3 November 2019
Notices of acceptance will be sent no later than 17 November 2019
